

Glanusk Lodge

Glanusk Lodge stands next to the site of the original house built in 1820 and has expansive views of The Estate and up into the Black Mountains.

Bedrooms

- 3 double bedrooms (one downstairs and two upstairs)
- 2 twin bedrooms (one downstairs and one upstairs)
- 2 single bedrooms (one downstairs and one upstairs)

All bedrooms are supplied with bed linen. There are 2 double beds which are 6ft and 1 double bed which is 5ft. All single beds are 3ft.

Bathrooms

- 2 ensuite bathrooms (1 with shower over)
- 1 shower room
- 1 with basin and loo (ensuite)
- 1 cloakroom

All bathrooms have bath towels, bath mats, shower gel, shampoo and conditioner and non-slip mats. There is also a chair for the shower for disabled use.

Drawing Room

The drawing room has french doors opening out on to a paved verandah. There is a flat screen television with Sky TV, DVD player, playing cards, backgammon and chess sets. There is an open fire and we supply all wood for the duration of your stay.

Dining Room

The formal dining room has a table that seats up to 16 people.

Kitchen

Fully equipped kitchen with refrigerator/freezer, Aga (operating winter months only), double oven electric cooker with ceramic hob, microwave oven and dishwasher.

Utility Room

The utility room has a second refrigerator/freezer, washing machine and tumble dryer.

Separate Drinks Cupboard

The drinks cupboard has wine glasses, port glasses, champagne flutes and tumblers. A wine cooler and ice bucket is also supplied.

Garden and Verandah

Outdoor furniture including table, chairs and sun umbrella. Please book the bbq in advance and you will need to supply your own charcoal.

Children

Children are very welcome. A high chair is available on request. Please advise in advance if it is required.

Dogs

Up to two well behaved dogs are allowed in the kitchen or utility room only. There is a charge of £5 per dog/day. Please do not allow your dog off a lead if you think it will worry sheep. And as the site is used for weddings, please ensure all poo is picked up and disposed of as per our useful instruction sheet in the utility room.

Outdoor activities

A set of boules is available. Guests can also book fishing in the River Usk and clay pigeon shooting for an additional charge. Please contact the Estate Office for further information.

Rubbish and waste

All rubbish should be put in the Thomas Waste bin apart from dog poo and there are bins provided for it.

Please use the bin provided for nappies.

Please do not put wet wipes, nappies, tampons/sanitary towels down the loos. Our systems cannot cope and they will block.

Parking

There is parking for up to seven cars outside the Lodge. Please advise in advance if you require additional parking.
